

POSITIVE iNTERACTiON

Facilitating to set relations right

2 x ONE-DAY WORKSHOPS

Presenters: Dr David Moore and Dr Alikki Vernon

Seminar Room: University College, Melbourne University

Dates: Thursday 25th &/or Friday 26th August 2022

Time: 9:30am – 5:00pm

These two workshops have been developed in response to requests from practitioners who have attended the Conflict Transformation through Group Conferencing workshop, and are looking to consolidate &/or extend their facilitation practice. Participants may wish to present their own [de-identified] past or current cases for discussion and analysis.

| Preparing for group conferences Thursday 25th August 2022 | Managing complex cases Friday 26th August 2022 |
|---|---|
| This workshop will support participants to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ revise diagnostic and preparation skills;▪ analyse combinations of dispute-handling, conflict-management, and change-management techniques that can help resolve comparable situations;▪ explore examples of case management to determine the most appropriate process or combination of processes;▪ practise preparation skills in small and large group exercises. | This workshop will support participants to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ examine how to adapt group conferencing and other restorative practices when dealing with more complex cases (including family violence, sexual assault, or complex organisational issues);▪ review administrative arrangements that support therapeutic outcomes;▪ revise and practise group conference facilitation skills in small- and large group exercises. |

The training meets the Best Practice Standards developed by the Australian Association of Restorative Justice (AARJ) for training in Group Conference facilitation.

1-day Workshop fee: $550 or 2-day Workshop fee: $880.

(Both days are fully catered).

For further information, and for registration and payment details, please contact Alikki Vernon: alikki@alikkiv.com.au